Your application has been returned for correction and could not proceed to the next stage because of the following deficiencies:

1. Business Address Inconsistency

The business address stated in the submitted application form does not match the address shown in the submitted proof of occupancy.

2. Incomplete Proof of Occupancy

The submitted proof of occupancy does not contain complete authorization details and does not include the property owner's signature.

3. Outdated Business Clearance

The submitted business clearance is no longer current and must be replaced with an updated copy before resubmission.

Please correct the deficiencies above and review the affected documents for consistency before resubmitting the application.

This notice is not a final approval or denial. It only identifies items that require correction before the application may be reviewed again.
